A great crowd was on hand to bid and additionally numerous absentee buyers phoned in bids represented by Ruble Cattle Services and sale consultant Billy Proffitt. This year's fall sale, the first managed by Ruble Cattle Services, was a tremendous success. Thank you to all the Virginia buyers and customers around the country who left bids and also to those who ended up as successful buyers. The VSA Board retooled the sale and the results speak for themselves. Thank you to everyone that made this sale successful. We are already looking forward to next Fall!
